

It has come to my attention that the FCC is considering a proposal that would affect our Indiana Telemarketing Privacy Act. Please, please, don't accept a proposal that would hinder or lessen the protection our Indiana law offers its residents. Before we put our phone number on the 'No-Call' list, my wife and I were inundated with unsolicited calls at all times of the day and night. It got to be so aggravating that we argued over who would answer the phone. We now enjoy peaceable evenings at home. When the phone rings we know its (probably) someone we actually want to talk to. We enjoy our privacy as an inalienable right - not a luxury. Let them advertise in newspapers, magazines, television, on billboards for goodness' sake - just please, DON'T CALL ME! Thank you for your consideration.
